Fabulous horses, phenomenal opportunities, unforgettable experiences ... endless possibilities

ENHANCE your riding and horse training/management skills by attending clinics, seminars, and demos presented by many of the nation's foremost trainers, coaches, competitors, and industry professionals. With hundreds of sessions in seven venues, a little advance planning will be required!

RIDE WITH THE BEST in a clinic at Equine Affaire and receive individual instruction from or have your horse trained by one of our top clinicians for a very affordable clinic fee. Apply for clinics by February 15.

ACQUIRE basic horse and horsemanship expertise through demos, interactive exhibits, and activities for new riders and horse owners of all ages at the Equine Fundamentals Forum.

COMPETE in the Versatile Horse & Rider Competition, Equine Affaire's timed and judged race through a challenging obstacle course. Twenty-five pre-selected contestants will compete in this ultimate test of horsemanship on Friday, April 7, for $5500 and other prizes. Apply to compete by February 15.

EXPERIENCE the Fantasia, Equine Affaire's magical and musical celebration of the horse sponsored by Absorbine®. Enjoy an evening of amazing entertainment by top notch equestrian entertainers and exceptional horses performing to a blend of musical styles. Advance tickets are on sale through March 30. Remaining tickets available at the event.

SHOP the largest horse-related trade show in North America where you can see, touch, try on, and compare everything you and your horse “need” ... and some things you’ll discover you simply “must have!” And find bargains on quality consigned tack, riding apparel and other items at The Marketplace at Equine Affaire.

DISCOVER and appreciate the amazing diversity of the horse world in the Breed Pavilion, Horse and Farm Exhibits, and demos throughout the weekend. Get up close and personal with equines from miniatures to drafts, gaited to easy gaited breeds, and stock horses to sport horses.

BUY A HORSE OR SELL ONE at the “For Sale” stalls in the Horse & Farm Exhibits. Stalls are inexpensive to rent, and you can present your horse in person to thousands of potential customers. “For Sale” stalls include a listing and photo of your horse on equineaffaire.com.

PROMOTE your equine facility, stallion, or horse-related services by exhibiting in the Horse & Farms Exhibits area. It’s a low-cost and effective way to market your business to avid horse enthusiasts from throughout the Midwest.

CONSIGN your unwanted equine and equestrian items at The Marketplace at Equine Affaire and receive cash for sales! Consignment fees are lower than at other venues, and you can enjoy Equine Affaire while EA’s staff sells your items for you. What could be easier?

RIDE A HORSE for the first time ... or the first time in a long time. Equine Affaire is partnering with the American Horse Council’s Time to Ride program and area horse farms to provide opportunities for attendees to ride seasoned lesson horses.

SHARE your passion for horses with family and friends while connecting with all corners of the horse industry.

WIN one of several cash prizes (up to $500), a gift certificate for an equine retailer, tickets to Equine Affaire and more in Equine Affaire’s Free Raffle. Enter online by April 15.

TICKETS available in advance through March 22 and at the door.
